

Textile printing mill in the Czech Republic

LA LINEA s.r.o. is a textile printing, dyeing and finishing mill based in Dvur Kralove nad Labem, Czech Republic. The company was founded in 1993 as the successor of the Czech textile mill TIBA a.s. and in 2005 acquired technology from the Swiss printing mill Heberlein AG. Its high quality products such as a brushed flannel fabric or smooth cotton sateen are popular with customers in Europe. LA LINEA s.r.o. produces also printed and solid coloured plain cotton fabrics. The main aim is to be known as a flexible and customer oriented textile mill with a strong focus on European quality standards.
